

Major Infrastructure Land Assembly Best Practice Summit
Monday 5 December 2011, 11.00 – 16.00

An event run and presented by

The UK Compulsory Purchase Association and
The US International Rights of Way Association

Hosted by CBRE, Henrietta House, London on

Programme:

- 11.00 Coffee and arrival
- 11.25 Welcome and introduction by
Phil Maude, Director of Compulsory Purchase, Squire Sanders Hammonds
- 11.30 Land assembly, demands for consultation; and community engagement strategies
- IRWA will provide several real case studies from the states that will show both examples of what works and what does not work; and why.
 - The session will be an interactive
 - Addressing the growing needs of promoters to get public input and to manage the passions surrounding every project.
- 13.30 Lunch
- 14.15 What can the UK learn from such programmes?
UK Infrastructure initiatives
Round table question and answers
- 15.15 Discussion on merits of new UK Qualification and creation of working party
- 16.00 Close

Contributors:

- Phil Maude Director of Compulsory Purchase, Squire Sanders Hammonds
- Keith Murray Principal, Keith Murray Associates and Chairman, CPA
- Robbie Owen Partner, Bircham Dyson Bell, and Hon Secretary, NIPA
- Faith Roland SR/WA, Chief Executive Officer, Roland Resources, Inc. Bellevue, Washington and Past International President
- Colin Smith, Senior Director, CBRE and Hon Secretary, CPA
- Angus Walker Partner, Bircham Dyson Bell, and member, NIPA
- Randy A. Williams Managing Director Integra Realty Resources-Austin, Austin, Texas
IRWA International President