Biographical Details

Colin Cottage BSc (Hons) MRICS IRRV

Partner, Head of Regeneration & Infrastructure, Glenny LLP
(From September – Senior Director, Ardent)

Colin qualified as a chartered surveyor in 1991 and has specialised in providing advice on compulsory purchase and compensation matters to both acquiring authorities and claimants for almost twenty years. He was chairman of the CPA in 2016-17.

Colin's experience extends to advising on CPOs for acquiring authorities at Dagenham, Stratford, Woolwich, Canning Town, Harlow, Romford, Rainham, Abbey Wood, Roehampton, Basildon and Barking. He also advised the London Development Agency and the Greater London Authority on the CPO used to deliver the 2012 Olympic Games.

Colin also acts for landowners and occupiers affected by the use of compulsory purchase powers across the UK. He is currently advising claimants in relation to Crossrail, HS2, Heathrow, the Bank Station Capacity upgrade, the Trafford Metrolink extension, the Eccles WWTW pipeline, J7A M11 and a number of regeneration projects across south east England.

Colin has experience of providing both written and oral expert evidence at Public Inquiry, the Lands Chamber and in the High Court.
